

Our Dreams Will Go On

We believe in everything that happens
Yesterday, today, and in tomorrow's dreams
Our lives were changed by the coming
Of the one who will be our king

In dreams, we believe
We will fly and everyone will see
Our high soaring wings and meet
The salvation that our souls reap

Our dreams will go on, and on, and on
For we believe in one true salvation
Answered prayers are everyday received
All trials and tribulations and love pains
Have made us stronger, our strength were regained

Everywhere we go
Yesterday, today, and tomorrow
We are destined to become
The almighty fruits of our salvation

Our dreams will go on...
